

Two SPACIOUS PARKS.—The Legislature of the State of New York has recently authorized the purchase of ground for two magnificent parks in the city of New York. One of the spots designated has been heretofore known as "Jones's Woods." It abounds with fine trees, and may be transformed into a handsome park in the course of a year. The Evening Post says that all that is necessary to be done is to thin out the undergrowth, fell a few trees, cut appropriate paths, open several fountains, and put up an elegant iron railing. This wood, which is nearly square, covers one hundred and fifty three acres of ground, and lies on the East River, between Sixty-sixth and Seventy-sixth streets. It has a bold, rocky shore on the eastern side, overlooking Blackwell's Island, and commanding a beautiful view both up and down the river. A more delightful retreat of a sultry summer's afternoon cannot be imagined, for it will be quite removed from the dust and noise of the city, furnish ample and deep shade, and yet, being on the water, will catch all the breezes that are blowing. It will cost about $700,000.

The plot of ground proposed to be included in the second or Central Park embraces the land between Sixtieth street on the south, 106th street on the north, Fifth avenue on the east, and Eighth avenue on the west. It contains a superficial area of seven hundred and fifty-nine and three-quarter acres, embracing the present receiving reservoir of thirty-three acres, and the grounds of the State Arsenal, and also St. Vincent's Academy, of twenty-four acres; the proposed new reservoir to cover an area of ninety-eight acres. The surface is exceedingly diversified; all the lands within its limits are among the most uneven and rocky on the island. These are splendid sites, and are admirably adapted to the purpose. The elevation of the ground in the Central Park rises at some points to the height of one hundred and forty feet above tide-water, while the valleys at other points are forty feet below the grading of the streets. The surface is diversified, and many of the scenes are picturesque and beautiful.

THE DARKNESS GONE.—M. A. Townsend, writing from New Brighton, Pa., under date of June 27, says:

"A little boy, blind from birth, aged about four years, died in this village a few days ago of scarlatina. About an hour before the little sufferer departed he exclaimed: 'Pa! I see now. Darkness is all gone. Day is come.' His father inferred from the incident that he was better, and would probably recover. But an hour passed, and he was with the angels."

A NOVEL APPRENTICE CASE.—On Saturday a writ of habeas corpus was sued out in the Court of Quarter Sessions by the father of a lad, about seventeen years of age, named William Cummins. The lad, it appeared from the testimony, went in to the State of Delaware and bound himself an apprentice. The laws of that State authorize a minor over fourteen years of age to bind himself before an alderman when his father or guardian resides out of the State. The boy left his master and came to this city. The master pursued him and had him taken before an alderman and committed. The father claimed the custody of the boy on the ground that he had never parted with his rights over him. The court awarded him his father.

Subsequently the boy was arrested as a fugitive from labor, and taken before the United States Commissioner Headlitt. The claim of the master here was grounded upon the statutes of the State of Delaware and the Fugitive Slave law. A. V. Parsons, esq., appeared for the apprentice, and urged the following as grounds for his discharge from custody: 1st. That fugitive apprentices are not within the meaning of the act of Congress of 1850. 2d. That the boy is a citizen of Pennsylvania, and as such has no domicile in Delaware. 3d. That the case had already been decided by Judge Thompson, in the Quarter Sessions.

The Commissioner continued the case until Thursday next for examination.

PHILADELPHIA LEDGER, 25th.

BOUGHT BACK.—On Saturday morning Henry H. Casey and the wife of Mr. John Powell of this city were brought before Justice D. K. Smith, in the custody of officer Morvino of Philadelphia, on the charge of grand larceny. It appears that on the 4th of July last Casey eloped with Powell's wife, taking with them $425 of the husband's money, and took up their quarters in Philadelphia, where they were arrested by the above officer on information despatched from here, and $200 of the money recovered. Both were committed to a jail here. Mr. Powell had recently kept a small store near the Brooklyn market.

NEW YORK JOURNAL OF COMMERCE, 25th.

PASSENGERS BY THE ARCTIC.—The Hon. Thos. Meagher, accompanied by the wife of his son, Thomas Francis Meagher, esq., arrived in the Arctic on Saturday evening. The father of our distinguished citizen is at present a member of Parliament for Waterford, Ireland, and has served his native city in the capacity of mayor for two terms. The party are at the Metropolitan Hotel. Señor Don Bartolomeo Herrera, late Minister from Peru at Rome, and suite, and a large number of distinguished Americans, came in the same ship.—New York Mirror.

VERY GALLANT.—Rev. A. D. Eddy, of Newark, New Jersey, in the discussion upon slavery in the Presbyterian Assembly at Buffalo, defended himself from the charge that he had married a slaveholder. It was untrue. She never had but one slave, and that was the one she married. He had no wish to escape from her bondage.

TEETH DRAWING IN MADRID.—The authorities of Madrid have deemed it necessary to prohibit the drawing of teeth in the public streets; first, because it is derogatory to the dignity of a dentist's profession; and secondly, because "it stains the streets with blood."

DAMAGES.—The Michigan Central Railroad Company have paid $3,000 to the widow of Stephen D. Gray, of Wheelock, Vermont, who was killed by a collision on that road a few months ago. No suit was instituted.

MR. ROBERT G. THOMAS, of Pensacola, formerly of Portsmouth, Va., has received the appointment of master carpenter in the United States Navy, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Francis Sague.

SPECTACLES LOST.—LOST ON FRIDAY, 23d instant, somewhere between the "Republic Office" and the residence of the undersigned, passing Ninth or Seventh streets, a pair of Gold Framed Spectacles. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving them at the "Republic Office," Ninth street. July 25—31 J. GIDEON.

NEW CHINA STORE.—THE SUBSCRIBER has opened a store on Seventh street, in Utermuhle's building, near the Northern Liberty Market, opposite to Broadway, where he offers for sale a fine assortment of CHINA, GLASS, and CUTLERY, which he is determined to sell as low as any other establishment in the city.

Purchasers would do well to call before supplying themselves. JAMES POOL, July 26—d1w For T. PURSELL.

NOTICE.—The members of the Mercantile Library Association are hereby notified that the reading room of the Association will be opened on TUESDAY, 26th instant, from 6 o'clock to 9 o'clock, a. m., and from 4 o'clock to 10 o'clock, p. m.

The rooms to be reopened daily at the above hours, until further notice.

BY TELEGRAPH.

From Mexico.

[NEW ORLEANS, July 25.]—Dates from Mexico have been received to the 16th. The papers are filled with discussions of the Spanish protectorate.

The Jesuits have been invited to return to Mexico. Santa Anna was preparing to unite the Church and State.

Baudin had arrived in Mexico and visited the President.

The diligence from Vera Cruz to Mexico had been robbed and one passenger killed. Fifteen of the robbers were arrested.

A dreadful inundation had taken place at Kalsaco, by which the town of Hunjascar had been destroyed and many lives lost.

Arrival of the Isabel.—Later from Havana and Key West.

CHARLESTON, July 24.—The steamship Isabel, Captain Rollins, with Havana and Key West dates of the 22d instant, has arrived at this port. Sand Key Light was lit up for the first time on the 20th instant.

The hull and materials of the British brig Scotsman were sold at Key West, on the 15th, for $1,610. The salvage on the Scotsman and ship Marathion had not been declared; $1,600 were required for the repairs of the Marathion, which were progressing.

The barque Robert Morris, eleven days from Cincinnati, bound to Philadelphia, ran ashore on the 22d, on Polican shoals. All hands were sick. The vessel was ashore when the Isabel left, with wreckers working alongside.

The Fugitive Slave Case.

PHILADELPHIA, July 26—2 p. m.—In the court of quarter sessions this morning the judges decided that George Smith, the fugitive slave, could not be surrendered up to his bail, in consequence of an informality in the application. Smith was discharged, and the case was postponed to the 29th, when he was to be placed in a carriage, accompanied by the United States marshal, and drove off for the Baltimore depot.

The friends of the slave, presenting a motley mixture of whites and blacks, quickly followed in pursuit, close behind the vehicle, to arrest the slave on a bail piece. The race, so far as I could see, it was quite a novel one. The carriage, however, was gradually gaining on its pursuers.

The result is not yet known, but the expectation is that it will probably end in a row in the vicinity of the outer depot. The marshal's purpose is to take the captive home to his master in Maryland.

For the Fisheries.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The United States steamers Fulton and Princeton and sloop-of-war Decatur sailed from Portsmouth yesterday afternoon for the fishing grounds.

LOCAL MATTERS.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The train of passenger-cars which left Baltimore at three and a half o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was due here at five and three-quarters, did not arrive until about seven.

The detention was occasioned by an accident that occurred a few hundred yards this side of the Relay House, where a hog, which was run over by the train, threw the last (the United States mail) car off the track and upset it. It was dragged some distance on its side, when its wheels and running gear becoming detached, the body of the car righted. The hind wheels of the ladies' car, immediately before it, were also thrown off, and great terror and consternation prevailed among the passengers within. In the mail-car were two mail agents, Messrs. George McCauley and C. Brady, and the former was somehow thrown out of the window or door of the car, and received no worse hurt than a bruised hand. The latter, who, we believe was on his third trip in his capacity of agent, retained his place in the car under all its vicissitudes, and was more injured, but not seriously. We think the plan of signals to engineers and brakemen could be improved; but we are well assured that all on duty yesterday were vigilant, resolute and capable.

THE TRIAL OF JAMES W. SCHUMBERG.—On the opening of the court yesterday morning, Mr. Fendall commenced the closing speech for the prosecution, which he concluded at two o'clock.

The jury shortly after retired. At a quarter past four o'clock the court sent word to the jury that it was about to adjourn, and unless there was a probability of their agreeing in a few minutes, they could seal up their verdict and bring it into court in the morning. The bailiff shortly after returned, saying that he was told to inform the court that there was no probability of their agreement.

Edward Duckett, free negro, was tried and convicted in two cases of assaulting officers in their efforts to arrest him. The court sent him to jail for three weeks, he having been there already two weeks waiting his trial.

THE FURNITURE AND HOUSEHOLD EFFECTS of the late Hon. Wm. R. King, Vice President of the United States, were yesterday sold at public auction by McGuire, on C street, between Third and Fourth and a-half streets. Notwithstanding the rain, there was a tolerably large company present.

The furniture was rich and beautiful, the greater part of it made in order in Paris. Among the many articles a rosewood Chickering piano was sold for $247; a pair of rare bronze vases, with marble pedestals, $150; a statuette of Cupid, $50; four suits of window curtains with cornice and fixtures, $55 each; four arm chairs, $30 each; superb gilt and bronze French mantel clock, and two pairs of elegant gilt candelabras, $150; mantel set, $200; suit of superior gilt parlor furniture, finished with rich crimson brocatelle and heavy silk fringing, consisting of two sofas, $95 each; four medallion arm chairs, $35 apiece; and six parlor chairs, $10.50 apiece. Two large and elegant cabinets, with Egyptian marble tops, elaborately carved and inlaid, two beautiful gilt and inlaid Brule tables, and an oval centre table, richly gilt and inlaid with shell, were purchased by Mr. Sidney Webster for the President of the United States, at $600 for the set.

We learn that Postmaster General Campbell has rented the house formerly occupied by the late Vice President, for his residence.

HON. PIERRE SOULE.—On the night following the day on which this gentleman was confirmed by the Senate as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Spain, "Young America" and "State Rights" paid him the compliment of a serenade, and by invitation partook of his hospitality. And now that this gentleman is about to depart for Spain, the serenade was repeated on Monday night—"a farewell." A. G. Haley, esq., of Mississippi, "in behalf of the National Democracy," and of those of another great party who, with themselves, "combine in sentiment 'Progress and Stability,'" addressed the new Minister, which was happily responded to by the honored object of the visit. Again the company partook of his hospitality. "Yankee Doodle," "Hail Columbia," and the "Marseilles Hymn," were played by the band; and altogether, the ceremonies were of an agreeably exciting character.

RESULT OF CARELESSNESS.—Yesterday afternoon a boy engaged in hauling dirt with which to grade First street, in the neighborhood of the railroad station, after emptying his load on a mound, proceeded to descend the eminence, when, by gross mismanagement and disobedience of orders, the horse fell, overturning the cart, and bringing it to a level with himself. The gear was so disarranged by the occurrence that the horse came near suffocating; whereupon the lad threw himself upon the animal, and with tears streaming down his cheeks howled a lament. A knife from the pocket of a gentleman who at the time approached removed the obstruction to the breathing apparatus, to the joy of all beholders. Suddenly and unexpectedly the horse sprang from the ground, notwithstanding one of his legs was broken by the fall in two places—the foot dangling by the skin, and the wound raw and bleeding—truly a repulsive and painful sight. It would have been a mercy to put the horse out of his misery by shooting him; but, instead of this, two philosophers, each at the end of a pole, lifted up the front part of the horse, thus assisting him to limp to his stable. It was a slow process of locomotion. The animal was valued at one hundred and fifty dollars.

PUBLIC LIBRARIES.—There need be no complaint that good reading cannot be enjoyed by the community at large at a cheap rate, or for nothing. In the first place, the rooms of the Metropolitan Mechanics' Institute, on Seventh street, near E, are opened daily to the public, who are invited to visit them; in the next, the Young Men's Christian Association, in the same neighborhood, give a cordial welcome to their library and reading rooms; and in the third place, the Mercantile Library Association have rooms, opened daily, on Pennsylvania avenue, between Sixth and Seventh streets. Besides, the reading room of the Smithsonian Institution is accessible to citizens and strangers. We trust that these advantages for acquiring useful information will be duly appreciated, especially by the young.

A PLOT TO ESCAPE FROM THE DISTRICT PENITENTIARY was recently discovered. The arrangements were not fully matured, nor had the day fixed by the convicts for the struggle to regain their liberty arrived. A part of their plan was to seize, pinion, and gag the guards, then lock them up in the cells, and at once escape by scaling the walls; the necessary rope-ladders being provided for the purpose. They had decided upon this means of disenthralment because they did not wish to take life. To say the least, it was a humane consideration; for which, we suppose, the penitentiary police ought to be grateful. There are "knowing chaps" in that institution, who ever require a sleepless eye upon their conduct.

GUN-FIRING.—For some time past there has been much musket and pistol firing throughout the city at all hours of the night; but we have in vain inquired into the cause of it. A gentleman who lives in the Fifth Ward informs us that some one in his neighborhood recently put a load of shot into his house by discharging the contents of a gun through an upper chamber window. With this exception, it may be that the design is to kill some of the thousands of dogs which infest Washington, or to warn burglars of what they may expect if they approach the sources whence the detonations emanate.

ROSENKRANZ PIANOS.

JUST RECEIVED, two superior instruments, with and without the iron frame, from the above celebrated manufactory. They were selected, in person, from a large importation direct from the original manufacturer, and as to superior beauty of tone, delicacy of touch, and interior workmanship, we challenge competition to produce their equals. These instruments we will warrant, if required, for any reasonable number of years; but judges will concede that instruments like these we offer need no better guarantee than is presented on first trial and inspection. They were made expressly for this market, being varnished instead of polished. All persons desiring to hear, see, or purchase a really good pian will please give the subscribers a call.

We offer for sale very reasonably also a superior five octave piano, piano style, with the swell attachment. Terms moderate. Second-hand pianos taken as part pay for new ones.
